The Iowa Winnie Hawks, started in 1971, is the State WIT Club of Iowa and is composed of the following five chapters:

- Busy Bee Winnies (NE IA)
- Iowa Corn Belt Campers (NW IA)
- North Iowa Travelers (N Central IA)
- We Wan To Gos (Central IA)
- Winnie Korns (SE IA)

The Iowa Winnie Hawks meet at the:

- Winter Texan Gathering (Feb).
- Spring State Meeting (May).
- State Rally (one week before GNR).
- All-Iowa Party at GNR (July).
- Fall State Meeting (one week before Tri-State rally).
- Tri-State Rally with the Minnesota and Wisconsin state clubs (Oct).

The goals of the Iowa Winnie Hawks are to:

- Promote fun and friendship!
- Promote travel safety.
- Plan group rallies, caravans, campouts, and other activities that provide enjoyment, camaraderie, recreation and a spirit of good will among members.
- Organize the Winnebago Industries RV owners of Iowa into a strong, happy, and cohesive group.
- Cooperate with all other organizations which are working toward the conservation of our national resources.
- Provide, through identification with WIT, a basis of a friendship with other members.
- Support community service projects.
- Support the goals and activities of the WIT national club.
